

English tourists rebuke the Emperor William for flirting with pretty women in Hamburg. The Empress Augusta is clever enough when she hears of it to say, with Lady Palmerston, when some good-natured person reported to her that Lord Palmerston, then like the Emperor, beyond his three-score and ten, was to be brought into a divorce suit: "Oh, well, he always was that way."

The Detroit Free Press asks why the Radicals do not tell what has become of the $250,000,000 that have been realized from the sale of war material within the last four years. It is because they think that, inasmuch as everybody knows where the woodbine twineth, it is unnecessary to tell.

The census of Japan was taken in February last. The population is 31,785,951 souls, living in 7,093,000 houses. There are 388,000 more men than women. The royal family counts 20, and daimios or princes 3,186. There are 245,000 Buddhist priests and 163,000 Shinto priests.

Nearly every day, the Atlantic cable brings us something about Garibaldi's health. People who can enjoy neither good nor bad health without having it constantly talked about by telegraph ought to remove to a country where the possession of health of any sort is prohibited by special Act of Congress.

HAVING opened during the past ten days

one hundred packages of goods, bought in New York at much less than regular prices, replenishing all the departments to the fullest capacity, both wholesale and retail, we are now prepared to fill all orders from city or country.

We opened to-day twenty-five pieces of CARPETS, in new and beautiful designs; 250 pairs of BLANKETS, including all qualities, in white and colored. Notwithstanding the very large advance of 20 per cent. in these goods, we are offering them at less prices than last year.

We keep only the best makes of goods, direct from manufacturers and importers, and have but one price.

Shades and Shade Hollands, in all widths and styles.

Some of our worthy competitors are getting rather nervous on account of the quantity of goods we are receiving. We do not get them for their benefit, but for the benefit of our customers.

We invite all to inspect our stock, which will be shown freely.

As an investment, there is nothing ever offered to the public in which an active, energetic man can make more money at. It is the Machine for the times. $1,000,000 worth will be sold. THE VERY, VERY NEWEST GOODS,

AT THE

VERY, VERY LOWEST PRICES!

HAVING just opened 100 pkgs Goods, 75 of which came by the Underground R. R., but in N. Y. far, far below cost, and in many cases we received a large Bonus for removing the Goods—not on account of their worthlessness and style, but by Houses retiring hastily from bis., all our dept are full, (especially the gas,) and we will take great pleasure in exhibiting the Goods, (particularly to the blind,) except that lot by U. G. R. R., which, having come in duty free, must be kept dark. We are also overjoyed to announce the safe arrival of a Sheep Skin, 10 lbs. Dog Hair and lock new Cotton, from which within the next few days, we shall commence to supply the credulous and confiding inhabitants with Blankets and Carpets.

In conclusion, we beg to explain that our modest style of advertising, is due entirely to the high regard we entertain for the intelligence of this community.

We would also kindly thank any large, well-established House to reply to our advertisement publicly, that we might get controversially into repute.

P. S.—Our "filing parir" is now abroad. Calls on that dept will receive no attention whatever.
